

Safety Groups UK

PROMOTING HEALTH & SAFETY NATIONWIDE

'Health & Safety Update'

Seminar

hosted by

Tuesday 20th May 2014

3M Centre, Cain Road, Bracknell

9.30 am	Coffee & registration.
10.00 am	Welcome & outline of day's agenda John Cairns (Vice Chairman) SGUK
10.10 am	Welcome - 3M Technical Centre A guide to Hearing Conservation, 3M  Protect your workforce from noise-induced hearing loss and the result can be healthier people and a more productive business. This simple 4 step programme should help you ensure each and every member of your workforce is offered the protection they need for the environment they work in and the role they perform. This will cover: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• How to identify and measure noise</li><li>• How to select hearing protective equipment</li><li>• Training considerations</li><li>• Validating your hearing protection</li></ul>
11.00 am	Update on 'Health Risks at Work' "It's in your hands" & future focus John Cairns, SGUK, Alan Murray, BSIF, Deborah Rogers, Deb
11.30 am	Coffee break
11.45 am	HSE Update & Long Latency Disease Karen Clayton, Director Long Latency Health Risks Division, HSE
12.45 am	Open discussion
13.00 am	Buffet lunch followed by the SGUK AGM