

CIEHF Report May 2015

CIEHF CEO attended IOHA (International Occupational Hygiene Association) as a guest of BOHS in London 29 April 2015.

CIEHF attended and supported the launch on 28 April of BOHS campaign 'Breathe Freely' at Merchant Taylor's Hall, London. This initiative is aimed at the construction industry and helping employers to understand and control the exposures, which cause occupational lung disease.

CIEHF has appointed McOnie PR Agency to raise the profile of ergonomics and human factors to a broader public audience. McOnie also act on behalf of BOHS.
