

Professional Organisations in Occupational Safety and Health
OBJECTIVES AND ACHIEVEMENTS - 2014 (draft 2)

Current mission statement:

‘POOSH exists to promote the continuous improvement of the practice of occupational safety and health through education, communication and the encouragement of co-operation between all involved in the provision of a safe and healthy working environment’

	Objectives	Achievements – or how to achieve	Proposed changes / updates
01	Exchange views, knowledge and information on matters of mutual professional interest Support awareness raising initiatives of member organisations	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Through 3 scheduled meetings a year• Member reports circulated and posted online• Ad hoc information sharing between members
02	Consider and offer comments on consultative documents and national strategies concerned with relevant occupational safety and health issues	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Through 3 scheduled meetings a year• All POOSH organisations are aware of consultation documents• POOSH members to share responses to consultations

03	Promote professional standards and competencies of all safety and health practitioners, and appropriate qualifications and CPD schemes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Through 3 scheduled meetings a year • Members to flag up any new standards
04	Membership shall be representatives of those practitioner organisations concerned with the standards of OHS practice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Each member organisation to publicise POOSH as widely as possible so that other eligible bodies request membership • POOSH minutes to be shared with the Council for Work and Health

POOSH Secretariat

Sponsored by:

The Institute of Ergonomics & Human Factors, Elms Court, Elms Grove, Loughborough LE11 1RG

E: anna@forumconferences.com T: 020 8449 6218 M: 07932 737 844